DUVAL COUNTY, FLORIDA

Northeast Florida 160miles east of Tallahassee,
70 miles northeast of Gainesville, on the Atlantic Ocean
Emergency Management Department: (904) 630-2472
Director: Robert L. "Chip" Patterson

Collier County Emergency Management compiled this information in the spring of 1997 and updated in 2005. As it is posted it is current, however, you should contact the hotel or motel directly and confirm your reservation and verify that your pet will be allowed before you leave home.

Collier County Emergency Management presents this information for your reference use only, and makes no guarantee of its accuracy. If you find errors, please let us know as soon as possible. We assume no liability for any inconvenience or loss as a result of your use of this information. For more information on disaster planning for pets, contact your local Animal Control office or Humane Society.

NOTE: Duval County is in a COASTAL AREA, where both surge and rainfall flooding is a possibility. Accommodations in the area are sparse, as Duval County includes many mobile home residents who must find shelter elsewhere in a hurricane threat. Visitors should not seek shelter in Duval County if the area is included in a hurricane WATCH or WARNING. The area would be able to provide accommodations for a very limited number of evacuees from other areas if the storm threat does not include Duval County.
